Wednesday, June 1, 2022

City of Waterloo Summer Registration

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 1 08:00 a.m.
Address: Waterloo Recreation Facilities

City program registration opens June 1 for the summer season!

The Active Waterloo Guide is available in hard copy for pick up at a City of Waterloo facility or flip through our online version. Discover the best in active living, leisure and sporting opportunities within Waterloo and the region.

What's new this summer?

- Preschool and child dance
- Cookie workshops for ages 7-12
- 7 NEW! fitness classes for adults (and expanded lunch hour, evening and weekend hours)
- RETURNING: CAN-BIKE safety courses
- RETURNING: 55+ arts, culture, games and cards drop-in at WMRC
- RETURNING: home alone and babysitting courses
- NEW! Badminton and Table Tennis at WMRC
- Swim lessons at the Swimplex & Moses Springer outdoor pool (opening June 18)
- City of Waterloo Museum events & tours

Registration opens June 1 (CARL – June 10) and you can register online. Be sure to register early as spot can go quickly.

Fee assistance is available. Apply online.

The City of Waterloo closely monitors Region of Waterloo Public Health and provincial updates and will alter protocols and practices as necessary. We are committed to delivering enjoyable recreation experiences in a safe and responsible manner. Read more information at at waterloo.ca/covid. We also encourage readers to check individual advertiser websites for their most up to date information.

June is Seniors Month events

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 1 01:00 p.m.
Address: 100 Father David Bauer Drive

Join us for one or all of the free online events we have planned throughout the month of June in recognition of seniors in the community. The 2022 theme is Stay Active, Connected, and Safe.

Visit our Senior Services page for registration information on a variety of events.

Monday, June 6, 2022

City of Waterloo Summer Registration

Date and Time: Monday, June 6 08:00 a.m.
Address: Waterloo Recreation Facilities

City program registration opens June 1 for the summer season!

The Active Waterloo Guide is available in hard copy for pick up at a City of Waterloo facility or flip through our online version. Discover the best in active living, leisure and sporting opportunities within Waterloo and the region.
What's new this summer?

- Preschool and child dance
- Cookie workshops for ages 7-12
- 7 NEW! fitness classes for adults (and expanded lunch hour, evening and weekend hours)
- RETURNING: CAN-BIKE safety courses
- RETURNING: 55+ arts, culture, games and cards drop-in at WMRC
- RETURNING: home alone and babysitting courses
- NEW! Badminton and Table Tennis at WMRC
- Swim lessons at the Swimplex & Moses Springer outdoor pool (opening June 18)
- City of Waterloo Museum events & tours

Registration opens June 1 (CARL – June 10) and you can register online. Be sure to register early as spot can go quickly.

Fee assistance is available. Apply online.

The City of Waterloo closely monitors Region of Waterloo Public Health and provincial updates and will alter protocols and practices as necessary. We are committed to delivering enjoyable recreation experiences in a safe and responsible manner. Read more information at waterloo.ca/covid. We also encourage readers to check individual advertiser websites for their most up to date information.

Wednesday, June 8, 2022

Staying Healthy and Well series - Spring

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 8 01:00 p.m.

Address: onlineonline

The City of Waterloo hosts a free online wellness event, “Staying healthy and well: a virtual series for seniors”, to encourage good mental and physical health in our community’s seniors from April to June. Topics include estate planning, gardening and visits from speakers.

Book your spot on Eventbrite: https://www.eventbrite.ca/d/online/staying-healthy-and-well/?q=city%20of%20waterloo&page=1

June is Seniors Month events

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 8 01:00 p.m.

Address: 100 Father David Bauer Drive

Join us for one or all of the free online events we have planned throughout the month of June in recognition of seniors in the community. The 2022 theme is Stay Active, Connected, and Safe.

Visit our Senior Services page for registration information on a variety of events.

Thursday, June 9, 2022

Art History Walking Tour

Date and Time: Thursday, June 9 07:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Address: Waterloo City Hall, 100 Regina St. S Waterloo, ON N2J 4P9

Tis the Year of Public Art in Waterloo! So we are lacing up our walking shoes and heading out for a history art tour of the Uptown Core. If you have ever wanted to know more about the artist or the art pieces around Waterloo, this is your chance! As part of the Year of Public Art, the City of Waterloo Museum and Arts & Culture staffs have joined up for an Uptown Waterloo Art walking tour. This tour will include stories of where and what some of Waterloo Public Art pieces are all about. Don’t miss this rare chance to find out the story behind the objects.

Register
City of Waterloo Summer Registration

Date and Time: Saturday, June 11 08:00 a.m.
Address: Waterloo Recreation Facilities

City program registration opens June 1 for the summer season!

The ActiveWaterloo Guide is available in hard copy for pick up at a City of Waterloo facility or flip through our online version. Discover the best in active living, leisure and sporting opportunities within Waterloo and the region.

What’s new this summer?

- Preschool and child dance
- Cookie workshops for ages 7-12
- 7 NEW! fitness classes for adults (and expanded lunch hour, evening and weekend hours)
- RETURNING: CAN-BIKE safety courses
- RETURNING: 55+ arts, culture, games and cards drop-in at WMRC
- RETURNING: home alone and babysitting courses
- NEW! Badminton and Table Tennis at WMRC
- Swim lessons at the Swimplex & Moses Springer outdoor pool (opening June 18)
- City of Waterloo Museum events & tours

Registration opens June 1 (CARL – June 10) and you can register online. Be sure to register early as spot can go quickly.

Fee assistance is available. Apply online.

The City of Waterloo closely monitors Region of Waterloo Public Health and provincial updates and will alter protocols and practices as necessary. We are committed to delivering enjoyable recreation experiences in a safe and responsible manner. Read more information at waterloo.ca/covid. We also encourage readers to check individual advertiser websites for their most up to date information.

History on Wheels- New Bikers Tour

Date and Time: Saturday, June 11 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
Address: 100 Regina Street S. Waterloo

We are back with our historical biking tours! Join us in June for our Bike Month programming. We will be collaborating with Active Transportation and Cycle into the Future to bring you two biking tours for both new-to-biking and experienced cyclists.

This biking tour is great for families, newer cyclists and those who enjoy shorter rides. The tour will include some bike safety to ensure all participants are ready for our adventure. Then we will head out on trails and paths to explore Waterloo and discover some locations where historic events happened. The tour will include hands on components and breaks along the 1.5 hour route. Note all participants must be wear a helmet and be able to ride a two wheeled bike with little assistance.

Tickets - $3 per person
Tickets through Eventbrite

Tuesday, June 14, 2022

June is Seniors Month events

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 14 01:00 p.m.
Address: 100 Father David Bauer Drive
Join us for one or all of the free online events we have planned throughout the month of June in recognition of seniors in the community. The 2022 theme is Stay Active, Connected, and Safe.

Visit our Senior Services page for registration information on a variety of events.

Wednesday, June 15, 2022

Staying Healthy and Well series - Spring

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 15 01:00 p.m.

Address: onlineonline

The City of Waterloo hosts a free online wellness event, “Staying healthy and well: a virtual series for seniors”, to encourage good mental and physical health in our community’s seniors from April to June. Topics include estate planning, gardening and visits from speakers.

Book your spot on Eventbrite: https://www.eventbrite.ca/d/online/staying-healthy-and-well/?q=city%20of%20waterloo&page=1

Thursday, June 16, 2022

City of Waterloo Summer Registration

Date and Time: Thursday, June 16 08:00 a.m.

Address: Waterloo Recreation FacilitiesWaterloo Recreation Facilities

City program registration opens June 1 for the summer season!

The ActiveWaterloo Guide is available in hard copy for pick up at a City of Waterloo facility or flip through our online version. Discover the best in active living, leisure and sporting opportunities within Waterloo and the region.

What’s new this summer?

- Preschool and child dance
- Cookie workshops for ages 7-12
- 7 NEW! fitness classes for adults (and expanded lunch hour, evening and weekend hours)
- RETURNING: CAN-BIKE safety courses
- RETURNING: 55+ arts, culture, games and cards drop-in at WMRC
- RETURNING: home alone and babysitting courses
- NEW! Badminton and Table Tennis at WMRC
- Swim lessons at the Swimplex & Moses Springer outdoor pool (opening June 18)
- City of Waterloo Museum events & tours

Registration opens June 1 (CARL – June 10) and you can register online. Be sure to register early as spot can go quickly.

Fee assistance is available. Apply online.

The City of Waterloo closely monitors Region of Waterloo Public Health and provincial updates and will alter protocols and practices as necessary. We are committed to delivering enjoyable recreation experiences in a safe and responsible manner. Read more information at waterloo.ca/covid. We also encourage readers to check individual advertiser websites for their most up to date information.

Amazing Race: Rum Runners Edition

Date and Time: Thursday, June 16 06:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Address: Waterloo Public Library 35 Albert Street, Waterloo, ON N2L5E2

There's talk in town about bootleggers and speakeasies and you and your team must make sure that these rumors and locations don't... get discovered. Solve clues, and find hidden stashes as you unlock the secret stories of the prohibition era in Uptown Waterloo.

Meet at the Main Library where you will receive your instructions. Your team will need a cell phone to send and receive updates as the night unfolds. Please register one person per team.

This event is presented in partnership with the Waterloo Public Library.

Register

---

Sunday, June 19, 2022

History on Wheels- Experienced Cyclists

Date and Time: Sunday, June 19 03:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Address: 100 Regina Street S. Waterloo

We are back with our historical biking tours! Join us in June for our Bike Month programming. We will be collaborating with Active Transportation and Cycle into the Future to bring you two biking tours for both new-to-biking and experienced cyclists.

For this tour, we will discover Waterloo from the paths, trails and roadways. Join us as we bike around town and visit some of the historic spots in Waterloo. This two-hour tour will include biking on roads and along side, motor vehicles and all participants must wear a helmet.

Tickets- $3 per a person

Tickets through Eventbrite

---

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

City of Waterloo Summer Registration

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 21 08:00 a.m.

Address: Waterloo Recreation Facilities

City program registration opens June 1 for the summer season!

The ActiveWaterloo Guide is available in hard copy for pick up at a City of Waterloo facility or flip through our online version. Discover the best in active living, leisure and sporting opportunities within Waterloo and the region.

What’s new this summer?

- Preschool and child dance
- Cookie workshops for ages 7-12
- 7 NEW! fitness classes for adults (and expanded lunch hour, evening and weekend hours)
- RETURNING: CAN-BIKE safety courses
- RETURNING: 55+ arts, culture, games and cards drop-in at WMRC
- RETURNING: home alone and babysitting courses
- NEW! Badminton and Table Tennis at WMRC
- Swim lessons at the Swimplex & Moses Springer outdoor pool (opening June 18)
- City of Waterloo Museum events & tours

Registration opens June 1 (CARL – June 10) and you can register online. Be sure to register early as spot can go quickly.

Fee assistance is available. Apply online.

The City of Waterloo closely monitors Region of Waterloo Public Health and provincial updates and will alter protocols and practices as necessary. We are committed to delivering enjoyable recreation experiences in a safe and responsible manner. Read more information at at waterloo.ca/covid. We also encourage readers to check individual advertiser websites for their most up to date information.
Wednesday, June 22, 2022

Staying Healthy and Well series - Spring

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 22 01:00 p.m.
Address: onlineonline

The City of Waterloo hosts a free online wellness event, “Staying healthy and well: a virtual series for seniors”, to encourage good mental and physical health in our community’s seniors from April to June. Topics include estate planning, gardening and visits from speakers.

Book your spot on Eventbrite: https://www.eventbrite.ca/d/online/staying-healthy-and-well/?q=city%20of%20waterloo&page=1

June is Seniors Month events

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 22 01:00 p.m.
Address: 100 Father David Bauer Drive

Join us for one or all of the free online events we have planned throughout the month of June in recognition of seniors in the community. The 2022 theme is Stay Active, Connected, and Safe.

Visit our Senior Services page for registration information on a variety of events.

---

Thursday, June 23, 2022

June is Seniors Month events

Date and Time: Thursday, June 23 01:00 p.m.
Address: 100 Father David Bauer Drive

Join us for one or all of the free online events we have planned throughout the month of June in recognition of seniors in the community. The 2022 theme is Stay Active, Connected, and Safe.

Visit our Senior Services page for registration information on a variety of events.

---

Sunday, June 26, 2022

City of Waterloo Summer Registration

Date and Time: Sunday, June 26 08:00 a.m.
Address: Waterloo Recreation Facilities

City program registration opens June 1 for the summer season!

The ActiveWaterloo Guide is available in hard copy for pick up at a City of Waterloo facility or flip through our online version. Discover the best in active living, leisure and sporting opportunities within Waterloo and the region.

What’s new this summer?

- Preschool and child dance
- Cookie workshops for ages 7-12
- 7 NEW! fitness classes for adults (and expanded lunch hour, evening and weekend hours)
- RETURNING: CAN-BIKE safety courses
- RETURNING: 55+ arts, culture, games and cards drop-in at WMRC
- RETURNING: home alone and babysitting courses
- NEW! Badminton and Table Tennis at WMRC
- Swim lessons at the Swimplex & Moses Springer outdoor pool (opening June 18)
- City of Waterloo Museum events & tours
Registration opens June 1 (CARL – June 10) and you can register online. Be sure to register early as spot can go quickly.

Fee assistance is available. Apply online.

The City of Waterloo closely monitors Region of Waterloo Public Health and provincial updates and will alter protocols and practices as necessary. We are committed to delivering enjoyable recreation experiences in a safe and responsible manner. Read more information at waterloo.ca/covid. We also encourage readers to check individual advertiser websites for their most up to date information.

Wednesday, June 29, 2022

June is Seniors Month events

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 29 01:00 p.m.

Address: 100 Father David Bauer Drive

Join us for one or all of the free online events we have planned throughout the month of June in recognition of seniors in the community. The 2022 theme is Stay Active, Connected, and Safe.

Visit our Senior Services page for registration information on a variety of events.

https://events.waterloo.ca